

Hungry For A Whole Lot More

A D
I want to live pure, I want to live true
G E A
I want to live holy and honest in front of You
A D
I want to know love, I want to know truth
G E A
But what I mostly want to know is more of You

D E
It's the mystery I cannot comprehend
D E
It's the ache inside I just can't seem to mend
D E
You fill me up, and there's room for more
E A D (hold)
Lord, I have to tell You, Lord, I have to tell You

A D
That loving You only makes hungry for a whole lot more
G E A
And knowing You shows me how little I know at all
A D
I'll keep wanting You 'cause I know that I can never ever get enough
E
You're the Giver who keeps giving
A D
You're the Life that keeps me living
G E A
You're the Hope that fills the emptiness I am

You touch me inside, You reveal my secret sin
And You won't let me hide them away
You cut like steel, You burn like flame
You're the pain and healing all at the same time
